

The Herald, published at Palermo, this state, the former home of Oscar Hoff, has the following to say regarding his candidacy for the nomination of county treasurer: "Griggs county papers name O. F. Hoff as a republican candidate for the office of treasurer of Griggs county, and the people of Palermo will be pleased to hear of his success at the polls. Mr. Hoff was once in business in Palermo, always maintaining a good reputation. He is competent and will the people good service if they place him in the position."
