

Jorgen Houland, the young man who has been making his home with Rev. Swenson, and who recently was taken to the hospital at Valley City for treatment for tuberculosis, is expected to return here this week, entirely cured.