

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Miss Cora Hoviskeland, of near Tolna, had her left ear completely torn off one day last week. She was on her way from home, driving a single horse, going to visit relatives near by. In some manner the horse became frightened and ran away. In attempting to jump from the buggy the young lady fell in under the wheel with the above result. Physicians tried to put the ear back on again but it was found impossible.