

been very satisfactory.

To many friends of Arthur Idsvoug will rejoice with him over his appointment to the position of assistant cashier in the First State bank. Arthur is a steady young man and the confidence placed in him by the bank directors is certainly not misplaced.

Bring in your broken furniture