

Oscar Id-voog has resigned his position as bookkeeper with Green and, Priz & Co., and left Monday for Cooperstown, near which place he expects to farm. Oscar's many friends will be sorry that he reached this decision but will wish for him all the best things on earth—with bumper crops thrown in for good measure.