

Jessie News Items.

Robert Thorn returned home from Fargo on Wednesday.

A number from here attended the Fireman's dance at Cooperstown, and report a pleasant time.

The Farmer's Elevator has been shipping out a number of cars preparatory to closing up the 15th.

Fred Mellum, a brother of O. E. Mellum, of Northwood, Iowa, has been spending a few days visiting here.

N. O. Hougen and O. M. Rogne have been spending the past week at McHenry on business connected with the firm.

The Jessie orchestra will give the last dance of the season here on Friday evening, April 11. Walter Long will be manager.

F. B. Shafer, the genial clerk for the Jessie Hardware Co., went up to McHenry Friday on business for the firm, returning Tuesday.

Misses Nora and Bessie Jenson called on their father at Binford last week. They say he is well pleased with his new situation, but finds it difficult to obtain a house there at present.

Ole Osmundson returned from Canada, where he has been farming for the past few years. He has decided to locate here now, and will farm the home place. They all know there's no place like North Dakota.

John Erickson, former manager of the lumber yard here, was up between trains Tuesday. He will, we understand, manage the Farmer's elevator when they reopen. John will undoubtedly make a good manager as he is well liked in this community.

Mrs. Chas. Taylor, accompanied by Mr. Taylor, who met her at Hanaford, returned from an extended visit to the home of her parents in Minnewaukon. Later they left for McHenry where they will remain for some time, Mr. Taylor being there for the interests of the Hongen-Rogne company.

Earl, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert I. Thorn, died at noon on Monday, April the 8. The little one was taken sick about a week ago with brain fever, being unconscious most of the time. Dr. Almklov of Cooperstown and Dr. Truscott of Binford were called into consultation several times but of no avail. The grief stricken parents are accorded the sympathy of their many friends. The funeral was held from the West Prairie church Wednesday.
