

Jessie News Items.

Albert Wells of Aneta autoed over on Friday.

Dave Wilcox paid a visit to our town on Friday afternoon.

Erick Erickson was in town Tuesday, driving up in his Buick.

George Vikingstad of Cooperstown visited with Art Olson on Friday.

Cashier St. John was a business visitor to Binford on Friday of last week.

Sam J. Wallace left on Friday for Edmonton, Canada, where he intends to locate.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Thorn are spending the week in Fargo visiting with friends.

Albert Wieland and Wm. Werner attended the play at Binford on Friday evening.

The township officers of Tyrol held a meeting here on Monday afternoon, the 9th.

Mrs. Robert I. Thorn is enjoying a visit from her sister of Provost, Alberta, Canada.

J. W. Ressler has been affected with a severe cold during the past week. He is gradually improving, being out on Tuesday.

O. M. Roney and Max Wild, and sons, Clarence and Eugene, autoed to Aneta on Monday, enjoying the pleasant ride as the roads were in an ideal condition.

The barn dance held at the Albert Rickford farm, near town, on Saturday evening was well attended, there being over sixty couples present. All report a jolly, good time.

Miss Lottie Rorvig departed for her home near Binford, after completing a successful term in the school here. The teacher and children picnicked at the lake on Friday.

N. O. Haugen sold a five passenger, six cylinder Mitchell touring car to L. P. Larson of Binford last week. This is certainly a powerful car, being a sixty-horse power affair which enables it to attain great speed.

F. B. Shafer resigned as clerk for the Jessie Hardware Co. and left last week for Breckenridge, Minnesota, where he has accepted a position with an automobile firm. Mr. Shafer is a young man of a pleasant and jovial disposition and during his year's stay here has made a host of friends, who regret his departure, but nevertheless wish him good fortune in his new position.