

Jessie News Items.

Erick Erickson and wife were up from Cooperstown on Monday.

Wm. H. Butler was here on business from Cooperstown on Monday.

Miss Lottie Rorvig was a visitor at Cooperstown on Friday and Saturday of last week.

B. E. Cunningham and O. E. Melum took the fast mail to Binford on Friday, returning the same day.

Misses Nora and Bessie Jenson returned from a most delightful visit with their sister, Mrs. Wheelock, of Ross, N. Dak.

N. O. Haugen and O. M. Rogney autoed to McHenry in Haugen's new Paige-Detroit touring car, returning Saturday evening.

James H. Sinclair, of Kenmare, N. D., was here on business between trains on Friday, the 25th. We are always glad to greet Jimmy. Call again.

Dick Jenson has resigned his position at Binford and will remain here. He left on Tuesday for Barnesville, Minnesota, where he will visit his son, Arthur, and also transact some business.

Max Wild has purchased four lots from N. O. Haugen, on which he intends to erect a neat residence next spring. Max has already observed Arbor day by planting innumerable trees and shrubs.

F. B. Shafer royally entertained the members of the orchestra in his parlors on Friday evening. All expressed their appreciation of the delightful evening spent, and relished the light luncheon served by the host. The occasion was one long to be remembered.

Walter H. Long, whom everyone thought was missing, returned Saturday evening from Pingree with all the cylinders in his powerful Overland running smoothly. The roads were in splendid condition most of the way, especially between here and Courtenay.

J. W. Ressler autoed to Aneta to get his sister, Mrs. Fred Modutz and son, Eddie, who are just returning from an extended visit to Montana, stopping off here to visit at the Ressler homes, before returning to Wausau, Wisconsin, where they reside.

A large business deal was affected here Tuesday, when Oscar Rogney and Dick Jenson purchased the interests of the Jessie Hardware Co. of which N. O. Haugen has the controlling share. The new management will no doubt be successful, as they are able and industrious business men, well known in this community.