

Jessie News Items.

Julius Thorn autoed to Cooperstown on Monday.

Iver Clauson and Oscar Elgin were over from McVile Saturday.

Alex H. Osmundson was a business visitor at Cooperstown on Monday.

County Surveyor and Road Overseer Ueland was here on Friday of last week.

Miss Ella Thorn has been visiting at the home of Robert I. Thorn during the past week.

Ludvig Olsen came up from the county seat in a Buick roadster on Thursday evening.

Arthur V. McColm is enjoying a visit from his mother, who arrived on Saturday's train.

Mars Cussons, the popular Cooperstown miller, was a business visitor here on Monday.

Otto E. Retzlaff went up the line to Mose on Thursday to attend to some business matters.

J. W. Ressler and Joe autoed to McVile on Friday; Jack says the roads are fine over that way.

J. D. Erickson purchased a Flanders roadster from N. O. Haugen, having disposed of his motor cycle.

A dance will be given here on the evening of the 31st. Music will be furnished by the Jessie five piece orchestra.

Walter H. Long was again called to Pingree on Wednesday; he will attempt to make final settlement this time.

A number from here attended the ball game at Binford on Sunday. It was a comedy of errors, as expressed by one of the enthusiastic fans.

N. O. Haugen, Harry St. John, Christ Haugen and O. M. Roney autoed to Cooperstown on Monday, where they transacted business.

Hans H. Koloen is just recovering from a severe cold, which has effected him all winter and spring. We are glad to see him about again.

Oscar L. Olsen purchased a five-passenger Paige-Detroit touring car from N. O. Haugen, his Flanders figuring in the trade. He will now enjoy a pleasant and comfortable ride in a modern car.

Mrs. D. Jenson, Misses Nora and Grace and Master Maurice departed Wednesday for Pelican Rapids, Minnesota, to be present at the confirmation of Oliver Jenson. They will remain for some time visiting with friends and relatives.

Max Wild went to Fargo Saturday to drive up his new five-passenger Case auto. Oscar Roney and Sever Pritz accompanied him, returning the following evening. The car is certainly a dandy and Max will no doubt give all the "boys" a merry spin.

Chas. Taylor and wife left for Minnewaukon on Monday afternoon. Their many friends and acquaintances here regret the loss of such a pleasant and sociable young couple, with whom many an enjoyable hour has been spent. Charley is as yet undecided what he will undertake, although he has been offered several good positions. They will make their home in Minnewaukon for a time at least.