

The Binford Times

BY CARL E. PETERSON

Entered at the postoffice at Binford, North Dakota, as second class matter

Subscription Rates $1.50 per year

Jessie News Items.

A. B. Pella motored to Cooperstown on Wednesday evening.

The family of John Erickson arrived on Wednesday and have obtained rooms above the hardware store, where they will live.

Erick Erickson and wife autoed up from the county metropolis on Saturday.

Oscar M. Rogney spent last week at Duluth and other places in Minnesota on business. He returned on Monday.

Bert Campbell is erecting a large two story house with full basement on his farm east of town. The house will be modern in every respect.

Otto E. Retzlaff was a business visitor at Mose between trains on Friday.

John Berg of Cooperstown was a visitor here last week.

Mrs. O. A. Mellum attended the Kebaard funeral at Binford last Friday afternoon.

Ernest Rickford will visit at Fargo for a short time, going down the line last week.

E. E. Downe was up on a business mission on Friday evening.

On Friday the passenger going east bound was delayed a couple hours due to trouble with the engine. Tom says he needed a new engine and he surely has it now.

Mrs. J. C. Hazard of Cooperstown visited at the St. John home Friday.

Bert Phipps and Ray Nickols were down from McHenry on Saturday, Bert driving a new Reo.

E. S. Hamilton and son, Millard, stopped here Saturday, while on a business trip through the country.

County Treasurer Hoff purchased a five passenger Paige-Detroit touring car from N. O. Haugen on Saturday. He was accompanied here by his brother Oliver, of Sutton.

Willie Tweed and Elmer Krogfoss were down from Binford Saturday afternoon.

The dance held here on Saturday evening was a grand success, there being thirty-five couples in attendance. The Jessie Five Piece orchestra furnished some good and lively music for the occasion. A light luncheon was enjoyed at the Hotel Lehner.

Graham McCulloch is now the owner of a Regal touring car bought from N. O. Haugen on Monday.

Messrs. Gilfillan and Shaw of the Gilfillan-Remund commission firm of Minneapolis were in town on business Monday. They spoke highly of the volume of grain handled through this point last year.

N. O. Haugen was at McHenry last week attending to his interests there.

Miss Lottie Rorvig and Mrs. John Hovel were the guests of Frank Pfeifer at Cooperstown Saturday.

J. L. Wilkinson and N. O. Haugen were over to Sutton on Tuesday.

Mr. Cornell of McHenry was here on business Tuesday. He was accompanied by Mr. LaVon.

F. B. Shafer, the popular hardware clerk, left Tuesday for Sheldon, where he will attend the commencement exercises and the alumni banquet.

Mgr. Olsen of the Griggs County Telephone company was up Monday and promised to give the Jessie patrons better service, beginning next month.

Supt. of Schools I. A. Kampen paid a visit to the school here last Friday afternoon.

T. G. Thompson and Erick Erickson enroute from Sutton to Cooperstown stopped here Friday.

Louis J. Lehner spent a few hours in Cooperstown on business.

A Texas Ranger.

A Texas Ranger, a show, will play in Binford in a big tent on Saturday June 7th. The show has a cowboy band which plays a concert on the streets during the day and again at night in front of the tent and also furnishes the music during the show. The performance is given on a big stage and lasts over two hours and represents life on the Texas plains. There are several big scenes in the show in which they use the Cowboys the Indians, the Mexicans, the Texas