

A number of protests have been heard in regard to the closing of the central office during the noon hour. During the busy seasons, this is practically the only hour of the day that the farmer and business man can communicate.