

Frank Johnson was in from his farm, north of town, Monday. He will have an auction sale of his personal property some time in February and expects to move to Canada in the spring.