

North of town.

Herman Kahhammer, who has been employed on various farms south of town for the past two years, left last week for Ipswich, South Dakota, to look over the land, with a view of settling there.

Entered as second-class matter, June 15, 1879.