

enjoyable time was had.

The Frank Rice and Fred King families arrived on Monday and for the present have rented rooms in the West hotel, until some more suitable house can be secured.

The following are the names of the families who have arrived: