

Mrs. John Knapp had the misfortune to step a nail into her foot last Saturday evening, which has laid her up a few days. She is being cared for at the Pritz homé and is getting along fine.