

Monday.

The Krogfoss automobile that has been out of commission nearly all summer, on account of a collision with a stone in the road, is again in fine working order and they are ready to serve you when in need of that kind of service.