

Mrs. L. P. Larson, who was so seriously sick last week, and for a time very little hope for her recovery was entertained, is improving, and entirely out of danger, which will be pleasing news to her many friends.

Keep. These who has been