

Wm. Lucht arrived here Monday from Deep Creek, Washington, to look after his farming interests. Mr. Lucht tired of city life in Spokane, and bought a piece of land about 18 miles from the city.

About twenty-five young people