

A good, old fashioned barn warming was celebrated at the Norman McCulloch farm last Friday evening by a big dance, at which about 150 people attended. The music was furnished by the Binford five-piece orchestra. The floor, which is of four-inch flooring—something unusual for a barn, was in fine shape for dancing. A very enjoyable time was had.