

Preparations are being made for the opening of school on Monday, September 1. More new seats have been added to the primary department and the double seats in the advanced room have been replaced by single seats. The library has been enlarged with fifty new books. The teachers will arrive next week. Miss Laura J. Betts will return and have charge of the grammar department, Miss Katherine McLane, of Browns Valley, Minnesota, has been engaged to teach the intermediate grades, and Miss Ora M. Lowe of Bowbells, will teach the primary grades.
