

Ole Olsgard returned home last Friday from the hospital at Fargo, where he has been for the past two months, receiving treatment for appendicitis. His case was a very serious one and for a time his life was despaired of. He is much improved now, however, but it will be some time yet before he can attend to his farm duties.

Mr. Olsgard, Mr. C. A. Christensen