

PEKIN

Born to Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Lee, on Wednesday, Oct. 29th, a bouncing baby girl. Mother and babe are doing fine.

George Erickson returned Saturday from Chicago where he had taken two carloads of cattle, the market being better there than at St. Paul. He reports a good trip.

Christ Walhood shipped four carloads of stock from Warwick Saturday all from Pekin on the same day.

Mrs. H. D. Eagle received a telegram on Tuesday of the illness of her sister, Mrs. McElroy of Grand Forks, who after given birth to a baby, was in a serious condition. The baby died two hours after birth. Mrs. Eagle was taken across to Lakota by Mr. Olson, from there she took No. 2 to Grand Forks.

August Rickford, Louis Walquist, Otto Flohr, Andrew Bolken, J. C. Christiansen and O. E. Olson braved the ice cold wind storm Tuesday morning and went to Stoney Point for a duck hunt. They returned about 3 p.m., cold and hungry, but satisfied with the hunt bringing with them over sixty ducks to show for their trouble. This is likely the last of the big hunts for this season, as winged inhabitants of the lake are already on the march for the warmer climates. Jack rabbits are next.—Pekin Budget.
