

action guaranteed.

J. D. Peterson came down from McHenry Tuesday, where he has been employed in the depot. He has resigned his position there and will remain here until he finds a new position with the company.