

necessary.

Julius Peterson went through here on Monday from McHenry on his way to Dilworth, where he took the physical examination to enter the employ of the N. P. as an operator. He failed to pass the exam on account of being color blind.