

The four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Rickford met with an accident to her finger last Saturday which may result in the amputation of that member. The little one was playing around the wind mill and stuck her finger in the hole of the pumping rod which connects the wind mill to the pump. The accident was a very painful one, and it may be that the finger will have to amputated.

---