

Paul Rorvig returned home Tuesday from Fargo, where he has been with his son, Alfred, who is receiving treatment for injuries sustained two weeks ago by being run over with a load of lumber. He is recovering rapidly and will suffer no ill effects. He will be home next week.

An important business transfer