

aid society, at the Ottawa bridge.

J. H. Sinclair of Kenmare, was here on Monday. He went to Hannaford the same day and passed thru here Tuesday on his return to Kenmare with a new E. M. F. 30, that he purchased from the Anderson Sinclair firm at Hannaford. He was joined here by his son, James, who had been visiting with friends.