

SPERRY GOES ON TRIAL JANUARY 30

The Famous Aneta Murder Case
Comes Up in Cass County
This Month.

The most important criminal action for the January term of court in Cass county is that of the state against Clyde Sperry, who is charged with the murder of Kenneth McKenzie at Aneta, N. Dak., about two years ago. This case was tried a few months ago at Lakota and resulted in a disagreement and a change of venue to Cass county.

Sperry is accused of pouring oil on the clothes of young McKenzie and setting fire to him causing burns which later resulted in his death. States Attorney S. G. Skulason of Nelson county will prosecute and Tracy Bangs of Grand Forks will defend.
