

The State Bank of Sutton has been organized, and a charter granted. The capital stock of the bank is $18,000, and the incorporators are E. W. Blackwell, of Cooperstown, and Robt. Baily and Robt. Staar, prosperous farmers living near the new town.