

Sutton News.

C. L. Anderson and family spent Sunday in Cooperstown.

Miss Ursa Ebentier visited in Cooperstown a few days this week.

Miss Eda Peterson of Evansville, Minnesota, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. J. Melgard.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hoff spent Sunday evening and Monday morning with Martin Thompson and wife south of town.

Arthur Ebentier stepped on a nail Wednesday, running it through his foot. The wound is a severe one, but is healing nicely.

Christ Rood is now able to use his arm which he has carried in a sling for several weeks, the results of a fall from a building which he was working on.

Mrs Alfred Olsen upset a pail of boiling water on her foot one day last week and scalded it very badly. She was taken to Cooperstown Tuesday to receive the attention of a physician.

Oscar Hoff, county treasurer-elect and Ben Tufte, states attorney, both of Cooperstown, were guests of Oliver Hoff and family Sunday.

Alonzo Rhodes and wife and Ben Killeran and wife of Cooperstown, made an auto trip to Sutton Sunday to visit Orion Rhodes and wife.

Christ Heinson, who carries the Sutton mail from Binford was laid off last week on account of sickness but got back on the job Friday.

Farmers are very busy these days with their seeding. The weather has been favorable, so the work seems to be progressing quite well. All indications are said to be favorable for a good crop this year.

B. N. Howden has been out the last week or so, securing advertisements for the Griggs county fair premium catalogs. As most county fairs are not self supporting, various means are resorted to in order to help defray expenses. The Griggs county fair will be held June 26 and 27 this year.—Sutton Reporter.