

The Swedish midsummer festival which was held at Fluto's bridge on the Cheyenne river, near Coopers-town, last Sunday, was attended by nearly 500 people, a large number from here going down. There was a splendid program arranged, consisting of music, recitations, speeches, etc. A very enjoyable day was spent, and it is likely that these festivals will become more interesting with each succeeding year.