

the field that he went out there. He is undecided, as yet, as to whether or not he will accept, but if he should he will leave here in about three months. The family, however, will remain until spring.

On the other hand, a list has been seen