

as here in the spring.

Mrs. Karie Thune fell from her sleigh last Sunday, and sustained internal injuries. She attended the services in the Lutheran Free church, and while standing in the back of the sleigh arranging some things before she started for home, the horses started, throwing her backward, with the result as stated.

Mrs. Jennie Cunniff of Fargo arrived