A young man by the name of Joe Tischler was arrested this afternoon charged with robbing the till at the Opera Club room. The amount taken was sixteen cents. When taken into custody by Officer Amundson he confessed to taking the money and that he had an accomplice in the deal but would not divulge any name. Besides losing the money Mr. Boeckman is also short the till keys and the young man claims that his partner in the deal has the keys. It is expected that a warrant will soon be made out for the arrest of the other party.
