

ments will be made next week.

Doctor Truscott has been having quite a strenuous time of it this week. Two runaways is enough for any ordinary man, but that is just what Doc has had to put up with, and luckily, he has escaped with only being dragged on the ground and a few somersaults. Last Friday the pole broke loose from the buggy, pulling Doc over the dash board. He hung onto the reins until the