

ample justice was done to it.

Mrs. J. R. Truscott returned home Friday from St. Paul, where she was called by the illness and death of her father. Her mother, Mrs. E. M. Johnston, accompanied her here and will remain until after Christmas.