

news man?

Mrs. John P. Vangen was quite seriously injured in a runaway last Thursday. The accident happened in their own yard. Mrs. Vangen and four children were in the buggy, when the horses took fright at the buggy top and made straight for the barn door. In going through, the wheels struck the side of the door, throwing the occupants to