

delay expenses.

Station agent West went to Dilworth Monday, to take the physical examination that is required by the company. A new ruling has been passed whereby the company's employees have to have an examination every four years.

I. W. Brune returned here to