

Jake Westerhousen went to Fargo with his wife yesterday. She recently underwent operations for appendicitis and gall stones, and it seems that the wounds have not healed and are commencing to pain her. She will have the cases attended to while there.