

Willow.

Hello, everybody!

Jack Gaking has been busy hauling ice to Binford this winter.

E. Johnson bought a cream separator from Albert Rickford last week.

O. A. Roningen sold a milk cow to Nils Halverson.

Ole Isaakson is staying with his brother at Aneta at present.

Knute Rogne has been hauling wheat for Mrs. Paulsrud the past week.

Arthur Myer has been laid up with a bad hand.

Leap year girls, why dont you call on the bachelors on the Matt Rorvig farm?

Oscar Roningen butchered a hog for his brother, O. A., last week.

We understand that Charlie Johnson has been trading horses.

Ole Hegvig has been repairing harness for Anton Miller this winter.

Alfred Rorvig is still a-trapping. What are you catching, Alfred?

The wedding bells will soon be ringing.

Someone was seen trying to shoot a jack-rabbit some time ago. Why, it was worse than Oscar and Adolph.

Most people would hate to be in Jack Reid's, the mail carrier place these days.
