

Our friend, Julius Wurst, is rejoicing over the advent of a bouncing baby boy. He arrived Friday and soon made himself acquainted with all who met him. Julius will now be able to demonstrate his well known vaudeville talents in the wee sma' hours as he walks the floor with his lordship. We all join in extending to Mr. and Mrs. Wurst our hearty congratulations over the event, and trust he will make a husky Griggs county farmer.

Rev. Stinson of Cooperstown con