

Rollef Berg Obituary.

Kensal Journal: Rollef Berg died at his home in Courtney Tuesday July 24th, as a result of injuries received Monday July 3rd, in which his spine was injured to the extent physicians were unable to overcome. The obsequies are held in Courtney today, Thursday, July 27th.

The deceased leaves a wife and two sons George E., of Kensal; and Wallace, of Courtenay, and other numerous relatives in Griggs and Stutsman counties.

Mr. Berg had long been a prominent figure in business and political circles in both Griggs and Stutsman counties. He moved to Courtney some twenty years ago and has been engaged in the implement business and in farming since. Six years ago he engaged in the business here under the firm name of Rollef Berg & Son. Previous to coming to Courtney he lived in Cooperstown, where he was engaged in farming and for a number of years was register of deeds of Griggs county. By dint of hard work, honesty and integrity Mr. Berg has been very successful in business, and in dealing has acquired a large number of associates and friends who will be deeply touched to learn of his death.

When he happened to the accident that caused his death, it was known that his spine was injured and his condition was very serious but it was thought that under skilled medical aid he would survive, and for awhile hope was held out for a complete recovery. But last week he began to grow worse and the end came Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock.

A large number of Kensal people are in Courtenay today to attend the obsequies, which are held at the Lutheran church there.
