

successful school year.

John Hagberg received a letter from the Canadian authorities last week announcing the death of his nephew, John O. Hagberg, on the western battle front. He was wounded in battle Aug. 22 and died the following day. He was quite well known here, having lived with Mr. Hagberg for a number of years before moving to Canada in 1912. He enlisted with the boys from Saskatchewan last summer.