

Actuated by a desire to let the other fellows get even for repeated defeats or else to "rub it in" a little, F. C. Boeckman took on a team of bowlers last Thursday evening, single handed. That is, Fred played in the place of four others, and then "spotted" the other team an extra man, making six men against him, who rolled 18 games to his 15. The total number of pins showed Fred leading by 62 pins. Next, just to add insult to injury, he will be challenging seven men.
