

The Farmers' club held their first winter meeting yesterday afternoon in the opera house and was pretty well attended. A debate was arranged for the next meeting and the question decided upon is "Resolved that Canadian thistle is more detrimental to the farm than wild oats." The affirmative: J. C. Thinglestad, M. D. Lieninger, Tollef Tweed, N. Thune, G. Gilbertson, and A. J. Anderson. Negative: O. G. Arnerson, F. G. Lewis, J. W. Leininger, Swen Gilbertson, D. A. Goplin, and A. M. Hemerlin. A dairy meeting was arranged for, to take place on Tuesday, Dec. 15th, forenoon and afternoon. The speakers engaged for the occasion are: D. E. Willard, N. P. Ry. Development agent, R. F. Flint, Dairy Commissioner, and F. W. Merrill, of Fargo. The topics to be discussed are, Marketing Dairy Products, Dairy, Creamery Co-operation, Care of Cream on farm, How to Test Milk or Cream, Feeding of Dairy Cows, Silos, and Silage.