The Binford Farmers club held its annual election of officers, as follows: President, F. G. Lewis; first vice president, E. E. Iverson; second vice president, M. D. Leininger; secretary and treasurer, O. G. Arneson; executive committee, E. E. Iverson, M. D. Leininger, Henry Asmus. It was decided to hold another picnic at Red Willow lake some time during the month of June, and a committee composed of C. F. Asmus, Louis Iverson, T. H. Dahl, Tollef Tweed and O. G. Arneson will attend to the arrangements. The next meeting of the club will be held on March 22, and every member is requested to bring the whole family and a lunch. An effort will be made to have some special numbers on the program, and The Times will try to keep you posted on the program as soon as arrangements are made.
