

Congratulations.

The farmers' institute held in Binford Monday and Tuesday was well attended, in spite of the inclement weather. The speakers brought out some interesting facts on farm improvements, which will hasten the day when the one-crop idea will be abandoned for a more diversified method.

Joe Pella, who resides eight miles