

A fire which originated from a spark from the chimney at the Hub restaurant, created some excitement last Thursday, and but for the timely discovery and prompt action by the fire boys and others, Binford would be minus a number of buildings on its Main street. As it was, the damage was slight.