

Excavating for the basement of the Lutheran Free church has been completed and work on the concrete walls is going on. As soon as that is done, the church will be raised and moved unto it.