

The only "yaets" in evidence at the show, "Ole, the Fall Guy," last Thursday evening were those who paid admission. It was about as rotten performance ever put on in Binford. The play, itself, was vulgar to the extreme, and the acting was very mediocre. Such shows as this one have a tendency to keep the crowds away from the good shows which so metimes visit our town.

---